

Get rid of the walls (Syg Rio)

Conquer every thought
Define yourself by what you love
Lack of consequence
Longing drives the fall
I know, I know that you are here right with them
This soulless city gasps
I know, I know that you are here right with them
Cautious with respect

Why feel remorse, when there is nothing else
Why feel remorse, when there is nothing else to do

Completely caught off guard
Duplicating thought and lies
A blank slate divides
Insincere, it might appear
I know, I know that you are here right with them
This soulless city gasps
I know, I know that you are here right with them
Cautious with respect

Why feel remorse, when there is nothing else
Why feel remorse, when there is nothing else to do
Encounter living, fearful driven, when there is nothing else
Why feel remorse

Get rid of the walls
Get rid of that smile in a corridor
It's water under bridges, took me so long
Proposition? No, it's the result

Why feel remorse, when there is nothing else
Why feel remorse, when there is nothing else to do
Encounter living, fearful driven, when there is nothing else
Why feel remorse

I cannot believe this thing
