

Moon

And as I open up my eyes, thoughts will not leave

I realize I'm here again, caught and motionless

And as I open up my eyes, thoughts will not leave

I realize I'm here again, caught and motionless

Heading out to the sea, just to free my mind.

I cannot succeed, where is my out

The body receiving while the mind is deceiving

Taking a whole life to build up trust, for another life

In the wilderness, we are we are the weakest

Before us no one will witness

Heading out to the sea, just to free my mind.

I cannot succeed, where is my out

Can't push away

I can't succeed on the road we know, the road we know

I can't succeed on the road we know, the road we know

Heading out to the sea, just to free my mind.

I cannot succeed, where is my out

I can't succeed on the road we know, the road we know

And as I open up my eyes, thoughts will not leave

I realize I'm here again, caught and motionless

And as I open up my eyes, thoughts will not leave

I realize I'm here again, caught and motionless

Heading out to the sea, just to free my mind.

I cannot succeed, where is my out
